

ST ANDREW'S BALL 2022

THE EDINBURGH ACADEMY
jowalterstrust.org.uk

It's not just a fire helmet.

It's a beacon of responsibility. It's facing life's challenges head-on. And it's putting others before yourself.

At Gordonstoun, our students' experience of learning goes way beyond the classroom. Including to some very real emergencies.

Being of service to the community has been part of our unique curriculum from day one (1934 if you like your history).

Students provide real assistance to local Coastguard, Community and Fire Services and are currently involved in projects from Elgin to Ethiopia. It doesn't replace the academic side of things (where the desire to fulfil every student's potential burns brightly). And it's not your average school uniform.

But, then, there's nothing average about Gordonstoun.

THE BAND

Seeking to reinvigorate the tradition of Scottish reeling bands, London based SuperGrouse's inspiration stems from the spirit of the plucky red grouse. Founded in 2012 by Edinburgh raised fiddle player, Jason Dickinson, SuperGrouse started as an experiment, blending the tune repertoire of reeling with an approach more commonly found on the Scottish folk circuit. Soon after, SuperGrouse were warmly welcomed by a reeling community in search of something new and refreshing.

The band came of age in 2016 with an invitation to perform for the inaugural Royal Household Caledonian Society Christmas Ball.

SuperGrouse are now one of the regular bands for the major Scottish balls south of the border. Following invitations abroad SuperGrouse have performed everywhere from the headquarters of the Knights of St John in Malta to a Viking long hall in Iceland.

We would also like to thank, Oscar Tomlyn, the piper who welcomed you to the ball tonight.
